Philadelphia Personal Injury Attorney Rhonda Hill Wilson Honored with Two Legal Industry Awards

PHILADELPHIA (September 2009) – This summer the American Association for Justice (AAJ) honored Philadelphia trial attorney, Rhonda Hill Wilson, with the AAJ Distinguished Service Award for the second consecutive year at its annual convention in San Francisco. During the five-day event, the AAJ Women's Caucus also presented Hill Wilson with its Marie Lambert Award.

Hill Wilson was one of four individuals to receive the AAJ Distinguished Service Award from immediate-past AAJ president, Les Weisbrod. Hill Wilson was honored with the award for her exemplary service to the organization during the last year.

This year, Hill Wilson was also the AAJ Women's Caucus 2009 Marie Lambert Award recipient. Established by the Women Trial Lawyers Caucus in 1997, the Marie Lambert Award recognizes and honors women members of AAJ who demonstrate exemplary leadership to the profession, the community, the AAJ organization and the Women Trial Lawyers Caucus.

"I am grateful to the American Association for Justice for helping to foster my growth as an attorney and to give me the opportunity to share my knowledge, time and experience with others in the legal profession," said Hill Wilson. "I am personally and professionally humbled by each of these awards."

Hill Wilson is dedicated to the AAJ and its mission to promote a fair and effective justice system and to support the work of attorneys in their efforts to ensure that any person who is injured by the misconduct or negligence of others can obtain justice in America's courtrooms. She was recently elected to serve as the organization's Parliamentarian and appointed to chair the Diversity Taskforce. Hill Wilson is also a member of the organization's Executive and Membership Oversight Committees and the National Finance, Justice List, Law Schools and Organization Review Committees.

Hill Wilson is an award-winning attorney who has been practicing law for nearly three decades in Pennsylvania and New Jersey. She concentrates her practice in nursing home negligence, while also handling medical malpractice, catastrophic personal injury, wrongful death, motor vehicle accident and premises liability matters. She brings a high level of integrity and compassion to her clients. Hill Wilson also serves on The Salvation Army of Greater Philadelphia's Advisory Board and as Chair for the Philadelphia Area "A Mind Is" Annual Giving Society to support the United Negro College Fund. She resides in Bryn Mawr, Pa.
