

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

EVENTS

Wolf Block will present a seminar titled "Your Employees' Health Care Is Your Concern" from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. May 16 at the DoubleTree Hotel in Plymouth Meeting, Pa.

This free seminar will provide employers with an overview of the available options through which they can promote healthy decisions for employees as well as offer an assessment of the related risks, especially the legal risks, inherent in each of those options. The speakers — Vjera Silbert, an associate in the firm's employment services practice group, Cory Easton, senior director of sales for Express Scripts Inc. and Carol Staubach, a senior-level health consultant for WellNow — will cover health risk management programs, pharmacy benefit management and wellness programs.

For more information or to register for this program, please contact Niambi Ivery at nivery@wolfblock.com.

Cohen Seglias Pallas Greenhall & Furman will host a free breakfast discussion on business succession and its financial and legal implications. The event will be held from 8-10 a.m. May 15 at the Delaware Contractors Association building, 527 Stanton Christiana Road, Newark, Del. Guest speakers include Wayne Buckwalter, James Harker and Edward Seglias. RSVP by May 9 to Cheryl Urmey, 215-564-1700.

Liability Underwriting Society has assembled a panel from the business, insurance and legal communities to host an educational seminar, "The Subprime Crisis from an Insurance Perspective."

The event will take place at the Moshulu Restaurant at Penn's Landing, 401 South Columbus Blvd., Philadelphia, on May 22.

Speakers include Richard Bortnick of Cozen O'Connor, Raymond DeCarlo of American International Group-National Union and David Bradford of Advisen Ltd. The panelists will address everyday issues facing their industry colleagues.

The seminar will be held from 2-4 p.m. and a networking reception will follow from 4-6 p.m. This seminar has been approved for CE and CLE in Delaware, West Virginia and Pennsylvania and approval is pending in New Jersey.

Cost for PLUS members is $75, for non-members the cost is $85. For more information or to register for this seminar, visit www.plusweb.org or call 800-845-0778 or 952-746-2580.

ELECTED AND APPOINTED

Timothy J. Abeel of Rawle & Henderson has been appointed to the Trucking Industry Defense Association endowment committee, which consists of three attorneys and three industry members.

The committee locates and contributes to appropriate individuals, organizations and pro-

TIDA: to promote risk management, operational economies and reduction costs associated with accident claims and lawsuits. Abeel was one of the founders of the TIDA and he served as president and as a member of its board of directors.

ABEEL

Andrew D.H. Rau, a partner in the West Chester, Pa., law firm of Unruh Turner Burke & Frees, has been appointed as the first chair of the Chester County Bar Association's municipal and land use section.

RAU

Rau previously served as chairman of the bar association's judicial evaluation committee and is a past president of the Chester County Bar Foundation. He represents governmental and private clients across Southeastern Pennsylvania.

Rhonda Hill Wilson of the Law Offices of Rhonda Hill Wilson has been appointed to the advisory board of The Salvation Army of Greater Philadelphia. Hill Wilson's past leadership and dedication to serving the charitable organization prompted the appointment.

WILSON

As a member of the advisory board, Hill Wilson will help ensure that The Salvation Army continues to deliver services to those in need. Last year the organization provided nearly 617,000 meals and more than 322,000 nights of lodging to Philadelphia-area residents who otherwise would have gone hungry or slept in the streets. •
